AWS Activate Credits

Experiment, build, and grow with up to $100,000 in AWS Activate credits helping you get started at zero cost.

AWS Activate Console

Explore content recommended for you, including technical guidance for building on AWS, tools & resources, Activate exclusive offers, and details of your AWS credit awards.

Co-marketing

Dive into exclusive opportunities to showcase your startup at AWS events including AWS Summits and AWS re:Invent, and on the AWS Startups Blog.

Technical Support

AWS Activate credits are usable for AWS services and support. This lets you work with an AWS cloud engineer via phone, chat, and email, or get general guidance about how a service could best be applied to your business.

Exclusive Offers

Take advantage of special offers only available to AWS Activate members including discounts, free products, memberships, services and tools.

Training

Build your AWS Cloud skills with Learn on AWS for self-paced learning. From machine learning, security, infrastructure, to application development, we've got you covered.

There's a reason the world's hottest and most successful startups use AWS: we're on a mission to help you succeed, from inception to IPO.

To apply for AWS Activate Portfolio, you must be a self-funded or funded startup (pre-seed, angel, seed or Series A), be affiliated with an AWS Activate Provider, have a company website and LinkedIn profile (applicant), and an AWS account. If you have previously received AWS credits from AWS Activate, you may not be eligible for additional AWS credits. Learn more here.

AWS Activate and support credits are subject to the AWS Promotional Credit Terms & Conditions.
